The ISB's Young Bassists Program is a special opportunity to work with some of the world's leading performers and teachers. There will be workshops, masterclasses, and small and large ensembles. New works are written especially for the program. The highlight of our convention week is the performance of these ensembles featuring ALL Young Bassists on Saturday afternoon, 1-2:30 PM, June 10th. Participants also have time to attend regular sessions, concerts and recreational activities. All Young Bassists younger than 18 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.
